

Clarence Skip Smith

May 22, 2019

Clarence “Skip” Smith, age 73, of Whiting, died Wednesday, May 22 at Community Medical Center. Born and raised in Jersey City, he was a graduate of Snyder High School. He later moved to Belleville and Kearny prior to moving to Whiting six years ago. He was employed as an IBM repairman for many years.

Skip enjoyed many different activities, including going to flea markets, collecting coins, making jewelry and playing sports such as tennis, ping pong and bocci. He was known for his great sense of humor and had an artistic side, which he expressed by sketching and painting cartoon characters in his children’s bedrooms.

He was predeceased by his parents, Clarence and Katherine (Johns) Smith.

Skip is survived by his loving wife of 50 years, Darlene Smith; his children, Amy Ackerson and her husband, Scott, and Eric Smith and his wife, Marivel Miranda; his sister, Susanna and her husband Mike Seay, and his beloved granddaughter, Miranda Smith. He is also survived by several nieces and a nephew. Skip will also be missed by his best friend and walking buddy, Wiggles.

Memorial contributions can be made to Popcorn Park Zoo.

A memorial gathering will be held Sunday, June 9 from 12-2pm with a funeral service at 1pm.

“ Skip: will always remember those jersey city days and happy times with you and Sue at aunt Katherine's house. Trips to PA and salamander catching. Cousin Skip was always ready to smile and I will miss those childhood days. Rest in piece.
