“ Robbi o,
I know you are at peace now. I can say without a doubt that you are a genuinely good soul. You had your ups and downs, but I always held a place in my heart for you because of the good person I know you are. I watched you struggle over the years, and I am proud of you for how hard you tried. We had many long talks about how great life can be, an I know you loved life. You never had a bad thing to say about anyone, and cared about the next guy in everything you did. I am glad you are free now, and am glad to have known you. You are and will always be one of my true friends. Love you Robbi o.

“ God took you home Rob to spare you of any more pain and suffering . He said "Enough" you are home now. No more pain. You will be missed by so many. Rest in eternal peace. Although I highly doubt you will be resting. Watch over Dominique and your family. I hope you know how much I cared and loved you and only ever wanted you to be happy and pain free . Until we all meet again . . Gina “ Keeping all your family and loved ones in my prayers. Rob you were always such a bright light. Your smile immediately caused everyone else to smile as well. Although you loved living on the edge at times, you had a pure heart and were truly a great person. I watched you love your loved ones hard and drive them crazy at the same time I watched you fall and get back up so many times.Makes this moment that much harder for everyone I'm sure. So many will miss you. The world has definitely lost a great man but heaven has gained an angel and your mother gets to hold you in her arms once again. There's no doubt in my mind your looking down on Dom and Paul along with the rest of your family at Peace.... Protect them.....You are loved, missed,and always with be Rob

“ I can't believe you're gone!!! I feel so much had been taken from you in life, but you made the best of it. You had so many dreams and aspirations that you worked hard for and now you don't have the chance to enjoy them. At least you're in peace now and you're no longer suffering. I'm sure mommy and daddy are there to welcome your transition into another life...an afterlife filled with peace, love and happiness. You also have your closest cousins there with you as well. (You guys better behave up there...like that's possible!!! LOL!) It sucks that we have been kind of separated over the last year. I wish I could have seen you more, but for some reason, life just never seemed to be easy for us to make that happen. I appreciate you being there for me recently and helping me while I'm out in NYC. I know you're going to be watching over me (and scaring anyone who messes with me like you always have...Haha)! Until we meet again Big Bro...
Love and miss ya always!
